The CRAB PROJECT
(Cognitive Rehearsal to Address Bullying)

Original Watercolour by Skye Maitland, BSN Graduate, 2018

A Student-Faculty Partnership
Initiated by, and partnered with students

We are so grateful for the financial support for this project provided by Vancouver students via the Teaching and Learning Enhancement Fund.

Pre-TLEF: POLICY
- Qualitative Research Study
- Creation of an Ethical & Relational Action Framework
- Set of Procedures for SON to enact UBC’s Respectful Environment Statement
- Template for a generic Set of Procedures
- Funding: UBC SON Internal grants and UBC SIG award.

The CRAB INITIATIVES
- CRAB Workshops: Forum Theatre & Cognitive Rehearsal
- Qualitative Research Study
- Graphic Novella
- Choose-your-Own Adventure style Vignettes
- Train-the-Trainer Video

CRAB Workshops
Forum Theatre & Cognitive Rehearsal to support students to address bullying through an interactive arts-based pedagogy

Qualitative Research Study
Open-ended survey to explore students’ experiences with Form Theatre to prepare them to address bullying

Graphic Novella
Series of Vignettes
Focus is on witness, manager or leader who receives complaint, and individual who engages in bullying

Choose-your-Own-Adventure
Series of Vignettes

Train-the-Trainer Video
Video of live theatre with Professor Tom Scholte & nursing colleagues

Select References/Bibliography